

Mark Dittman

Mark C. Dittman

CEO

phone: 512-616-1100 ext. 110

mdittman@ibanktech.net

As Chief Executive Officer of IBT, Mark Dittman has more than 25 years of financial technology experience. Dittman is focused on steering the company's roll in the financial services industry, while maximizing performance. As CEO, Dittman has maintained a tremendous growth rate of over 20% year over year.

Mr. Dittman is responsible for developing strategic partnerships, architecting merger and acquisition opportunities, and marketing oversight. He has played a critical role in the successful acquisition of MICR Resource Management and two divisions of Goldleaf Financial Solutions.

Known for his overall industry knowledge, Mark has participated with several community service and business boards. He presents audio conferences for Sheshunoff Information Services, is an active member of the Independent Bankers Association of Texas Leadership Division, has been invited to speak by; Independent Bankers Association of Texas, Texas Bankers Association, Wisconsin Bankers Association, and along with speaking at numerous industry trade shows and participating in several interviews on the subject of financial technology.

As a Board of Director Member for Austin-based educational charity The Seedling Foundation, Mr. Dittman is very involved with the student mentoring and campus beautification projects that this organization provides to the surrounding of community schools.